PERSONAL DATA

It may be necessary for OUIFLASH to directly or indirectly collect personal data about its users.

The recipients of the data are OUIFLASH and the only people (agents, photographers, and third parties with a mandate) to whom it is necessary to pass on users' data for the fulfilment of the photographic assignments which have been ordered. User data is passed on to them solely for this purpose.

Users' personal information which is collected directly is subject to automated processing for the purposes of management of the business relationship and of administration of their account on the Site, as well as for rating purposes and statistical studies.

This personal information which is collected directly will be dealt with in accordance with the Data Protection Act of 6th January 1978, amended by Law 2004-801 of 6th August 2004. In accordance with this text, users have a right of access, rectification, amendment or deletion of the personal information they have provided to the Site. Users can also, for legitimate reasons, oppose the processing of personal data which relates to them.

To exercise these rights, they may contact OUIFLASH by email by writing to info@ouiflash.com or by writing to OUIFLASH at the following postal address: OUIFLASH, 99 Rue de la Verrerie, 75004, Paris, FRANCE.

Site users' personal information which is collected from them indirectly is processed using cookies. OUIFLASH uses these cookies predominantly to ascertain access statistics as well as users' browser history, etc.

A cookie is a text file placed uniquely on the hard drive by the Site server. Cookies cannot run programs or infect computers with viruses. Cookies are uniquely assigned and may only be read by the web server of the domain which issued the cookie. Users of the Site can accept or refuse cookies by specifying this in the settings of their web browser.

OUIFLASH declares that they have taken all the necessary steps to protect the personal data of Site users which the latter have entrusted to them.

ACCESS

OUIFLASH declares they have done all they can to ensure optimum access to the Site for its users except in cases of force majeure or events beyond their control and subject to periods of maintenance and potential outages.

OUIFLASH may not be held responsible for access problems relating to Site users' computer equipment or a fault with the internet service provider they use.
